POINTED EXTRACTS FROM SERMONS IN ST. LOUIS SUNDAY PULPITS.

"Your spiritual life wears down and often meds fresh supplies. As in the desert the easis is provided, the Lord provides for his children," -The Reverend Doctor A. M. Canmbell.

"Christ tenches his followers that if they are to attain unto greatness or honor, they must go up from the valley and be on the heights with God." The Reverend George Wesley Benn.

"Anoch was a hopeful man because he was God's man, and this fact inspired him."-The Reverend G. W. Enerry.

"Every moral or spiritual giant is the product of youl, arony and mental sweat. No prophet, no priest, no King bus come into life's perivities save through conflicts."-The Reverend Ralph Walsofield.

cattened of destiny, and all around us is struggle.

"Peace stands opposed to the spirit of surfic, confusion, contention and way its primary meaning is security, well-us/u2, prosperity and good. In its simple us it is the object of every man's desire. But what the world does not see, in its needing, the highest good, is that true peace becaused Job tells us, in acquaintance with God and in the siste of blessing which follows a conscious reconciliation with God through Christ, and in the accompaniments of that reconciliation. Many of the biling products cry. Peace, peace, when there is no secure. But God, through Christ, brings a blessed peace to the Christian heart, because he satisfies every deep thing of man's life.

"The Caristian tinds seems in leading of the life.

The Caristian finds peace in loyalty and love to Christ, for he is our peace. He is our peace in life's temperal things. He has placed upon the things of the world the proser judgment value. He has looked upon the commercialism and materialism of the world and said to us. Take no anxious thought for the morrow, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, or wherewithin a side of what ye shall drink, or wherewithin to shall be clothed, for your Heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But seek ye first the kingdom or dod and his righteousness, and all these things small be added to you. No true Christian man under normal conditions becomes a begger, and christian from an other threshold of the christian man under normal conditions becomes a begger, and christianity, solutinally true, is the only under normal conditions becomes a begger, and Christianity, spiritually true, is the only needy for sloth and the slam, since there are not the product of environment so much est they are the product of the degraded homan heart.

"Then too, he is our peace in the great world of ideas which brings constant conflict within us. I never fear for a tean's orthodoxy who has the full light of Christ in his heart. It is only when the heart is cold toward Christ that the head goes wrong. In the midst of the giant conflict to-day being waged along literary lines regarding the Bible and its leachings, the true Cfristian can be at peace, knowing that the lear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and the knowledge of the rightcoust in understanding.

"Then Christ is our peace in the spirit.

fear of the Lord is the beginning of wiedom and the knowledge of the righteous in understanding.

"Then Christ is our peace in the spirit realm of life. When the life is dead in tresponses and sin it is the Lord's voice that alone can speak pence; when the tides of iniquity surge in upon us like the angry; sterm-tessed waves of the sea, we can rest peacefully secure with the divine arms about us; when the conflict is sharpest and the rough places of life are our let and when weariness oppresses the breast and threatens the bulwarks of the soul, then he is our peace and beneath our lives are the everlasting arms; when death, man's final emeny, assalls and crowds in through the portals of pain and loathsome disease to the very cladel of the life and lays its cold hand upon the warm heart and stays its beat, still he is our peace, and the cry of faith at midnight or at noon will bring him who has promised never to leave us nor forsake us, and the end of that man is peace.

"He is our peace. Christ came to bring "He is our peace.

"He is our seace. Christ came to bring rest to a troubled world and to speak peace to the oppressed heart, and departing he left his legacy of rest to a world in conflict. Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you. Not us the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid, for he is the Christian's peace."

ADVOCATES FREE SUNDAY FOR BUTCHERS AND GROCERS.

The Reverend Jeremiah Cromer Gives Reason Why Supply Men Should Have a Weekly Heliday.

The Reverend Jeremiah Cromer, pastor of the Fountain Park Congregational Church, spoke last night of the agitation among the butchers and grocers for a free Sunday. He had for his text Gen. iv., 5;

"Am I my brother's keeper?" He sald the question of a Sunday for grocers and butchers was the old, old question of banishing from the earth the heresy of Cain.

He said in part: "The man who waits He said in part: "The man who waits urtill Sunday morning to go to the store for his Sunday diamer could, ninety-time times in a hundred, get that dinner as conveniently on the Saturnay before. Most people are kind when they think of it, and these, for the most part, need only to be reminded of their unkineness in depriving the butcher or grocer of his Sunday to cause them to desst.

"Our fathers and mothers not only bought their Sunday dinner on Saturday, but they prepared it as well before Sunday and ate it cold, to prevent working on the Lord's day. Perhaps this was an extreme position, but it was better than an extreme the other way.

"I am interested in anything that would make a saner, sweeter life for men. To have to be about one's business seven days in that dealise the week is enough to make a hell out of life for any man. I am not concerned just now as to what grocers and butchers would of negation that their Sanday when they got it. It now as to what grocers and butchers would of negation of the state of manifesting the sum directed of this brothers' rights and feelings of which he now compains.
